

FLAMING NEWS

From The Flaming Monkeys 4-H Club & FRC Team 3352

WHAT'S UP?

Our competition robot is complete! Now testing is being conducted and we are at an appropriate weight. The practice robot is being welded by SJTi. We have 4 days until Bag Day. Drive team will be practicing driving the robot in the small window of time before we have to bag the robot. Our first competition is the Wisconsin Regional in Milwaukee, Wisconsin March 20-21st.

Sub-team updates

Programming finished teleop code and started app development.

Marketing is creating team apparel and is continuing to work on the shelves for the pit.

Build finished the Competition Robot and did touch up. Testing and the Practice Robot are being worked on currently.

CAD is updating the CAD drawings.

Member Spotlight

Andy Aponte is the lead of the Project Management team and is on build team, this is his second year with the team. He joined the team when Zach Hoegberg told him about it. He thought it sounded interesting. He wants to attend University of Wisconsin or University of Illinois and major in Computer Science or Engineering. He goes to BHS and is the Junior Class President. He spends most of his free time at the Bot Cave. When he isn't here, he does a lot of work with the BHS Student Council.

FIRST Events

A unique melding of science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) principles and the excitement of competition makes FIRST the ultimate Sport for the Mind™. Visit an event near you and watch as teams showcase the results of weeks of intense preparation and compete in thrilling robot matches. The Flaming Monkeys are attending 2 regionals this season, the Wisconsin Regional, March 20-21st at the UW - Milwaukee Panther Arena and the Midwest Regional, April 3-4th at the UIC Pavilion.
